Hotel Indigo Newark Downtown

Newark, NJ

Hotel Indigo Newark Downtown is a boutique hotel located in the heart of Newark, New Jersey, and is right down the street from the town’s well-known entertainment venue – the Prudential Center. Hotel Indigo houses over 90 guest rooms and a number of amenities for guests.

The original building’s structure was created in 1912 and was designed by Cass Gilbert serving as a National State Bank in the area. The current building still has remnants of its prior history with its oversized arching windows, ornately detailed pillars, restored front desk and vault inside of the building, and the original lettering near the entrance of the building.
